Terrible piece: shameless framing, shallow analysis, and not even an attempt to critically examine events that led to the accusation.

I'm not so sure Antifa should be considered a terrorist organization, but Kenney and Clarke don't make a good-faith attempt here

Its telling that most of the analysis on antifa points to their lack of structure implying that w/out a line & block or a hierarchy they can't be an organization. That ignores modern terror and fails to recognize our gaps in knowledge due to a lack of action by law enforcement.

To me, this woeful ignorance is a sign of how decadent academia and the expert class is more beholden to politics than truth or facts

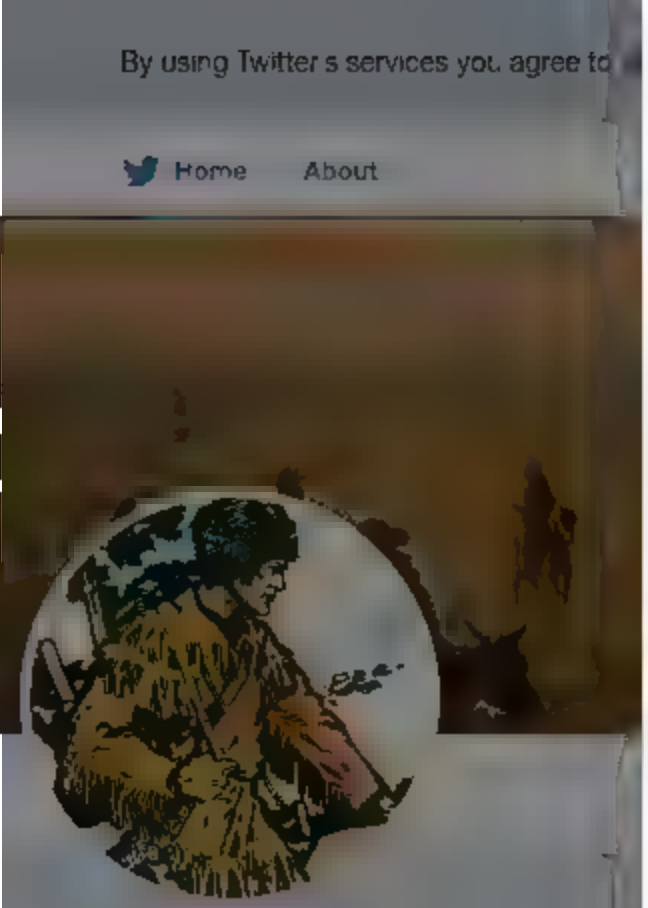
2. During the Terrors, political clubs like the Jacobins worked the mob into murderous frenzies with rumors of foreign agents, revolts, and secret plots and conspiracies.



The 1792 September Massacres attest to the ominous power of such whisperings.

Are we so different today?

Remember when we were privates, and some general would visit, and our senior NCOs would say something like, "If you have a complaint, say it, but also offer a solution otherwise you're just whining." Why don't these generals offer any solutions? Aren't they just whining?

Under Obama there was no will to defeat ISIS, we were deployed w/ silly ROE & no plan to take Mosul / Raqqa. Trump enabled the cdrs on the ground to beat ISIS

Ordering the strike on QS was something Bush/Obama refused to do as they killed our troops. Trump deserves major credit

It's going to be a uphill fight, CTS can & will target low level KH types but w/ Amiri & the PMU so deeply intrenched in the ISF/GOI a few CTS arrests won't have a huge effect.

Big changes to our support for the GOI must be made if we want to limit Iran's control in Iraq.

This is good news, but should be viewed w/ some skepticism.

This raid is tactical, the new PM can show the US he's going after KH to insure the US $ continues w/out addressing KH's ldrs or Iran's main proxies deep in the GOI / ISF.

This is good news, but should be viewed w/ some skepticism.

This raid is tactical. the new PM can show the US he's going after KH to insure the US $ continues w/out addressing KH's ldrs or Iran's main proxies deep in the GOI / ISF

Raids make US advisors, happy it looks like the ISF did something, but catch & release is an ISF sport.

Look at the Shia militia ldrs & ISIS ldrs pictures - at some point most were in custody.

What remains constant is US $ that goes to well placed IR proxies in the GOI.

Very much looking forward to this book by @wesleysmorgan. It's what's best about nonfiction. A talented reporter who becomes obsessed with a fascinating (and undercovered place).

I certainly agree w/ you 1st statement!

2 issues: a photo allows the board to see who is out of shape. Fitness & mil appearance matter

Branches/MOSs are judged by their peers so I'm not sure how much credit a SF guy gets for a long tab etc, all of that info is in the ERB/ORB

While I was in I did suspect that DA photos & constant uniform changes were just a mechanism to ensure every service member gave enough $ to the AFES & NEX industrial complex. So maybe you are onto something.

Thanks Joe. This is about availability bias.

Fitness matters & it's already assessed. We're not a beauty contest. Only 15% mil are frontline combat anyways, let s focus on what matters.

You're assuming that people stay in an MOS 18D become MDs & his tab is on his ORB already

Two thoughts:

1. Leaving troops in exposed positions in AFG only makes it easier for foreign adversaries to do things like this.

2. Considering the history of green on blue attacks, I would be equally worried about members of Afghan security forces trying to collect a bounty.

In AFG we are targets for all our enemies.

We don't have to remain static in known positions conventionally fighting an unconventional war for no gain.

We must fight where it matters using proxies, over extension has a steep price & limits us.

Short thread

Lots of hysterics about Trump being briefed on this intel

1st, this is a shadow war we are fighting w/Russia a public announcement or overt action would only tip our hand & be a waste. RU will just deny.

If POTUS is given crap options like go yell at Russia or go to war w/ them he is left shaking his head & opting for going it on his own via negotiations.

We need to start fighting wars as our enemies fight them or we will remain at the mercy of those who know war is changing.

If we keep giving up hills, pretty soon all we'll have left is a shack. If the enemy thinks it's worth kicking us off, then it's probably worth staying.

Per Trump Admin source: Leaks to NYT are coming from a DOD official, who is leaking a limited amount of classified information out of context, in order to undermine Trump's policy to exit Afghanistan.

Question now is what they plan to do about it.

I understand the revulsion at Trump's bromance with Putin bomber of hospitals among other things, but I'm genuinely curious as to the actual policy prescriptions of all the new Russia hawks? More sanctions? Or are they actually willing to do tit for tat strikes against Wagner?

Each time POTUS attempts to get us out of these places "new" intel or a new pressing reason emerges via leaks.

This doesn't appear to be different. If it's a legit threat then provide options, Conoco & sulmani show that if a plan is presented to counter a threat POTUS will act.

It remains unknown what type of intel reported that Russia was paying the TB to kill our troops in AFG.

What is highly unlikely is that the intel was both corroborated & complete enough to indicate who "Russian intel" is.

Russia likely uses surrogates to task/pay TB.

There's a deeper "pro-war" agenda here by who benefits from this story to keep us in AFG? I personally found via interrogation of an Iranian in 2003 that Iran was funding insurgents killing US troops in AFG but that was suppressed by both & Bush 43 admins

Now we have moved to this never evolving drip drip. I don't like leaks. Ever Crimes. But clearly this was done because US forces were being hunted and the WH/NSC was paralyzed. With zero reprisals planned. Not condoning the leak, but understanding motivations of why important.

Do you think the intel was authoritative & corroborated enough to warrant a response against RU? They were likely using surrogates.

So what is the point of the leak?

Based on Trump's past actions it's safe to say he would have authorized action if the intel met threshold.

I do think it was enough intell to warrant a response. very least bracing Moscow. It's a broken ntl security team that could not even get such a recommendation directly to Trump. lay this on OBrien frankly Particularly in midst of Trump desire to invite Putin for the G7

If the IC were so heil bent on this being a threat why weren't lethal response options presented?

None of us went that route when Obama was sending $ to the Iranians as they blatantly killed us in Iraq & AFG.

Leaking HUMINT is immoral. This exposes the person whom reported this information to us, after we promised we'd keep them safe.

To collect this intel we also put our ppl in harm's way - making that risk all for nothing.

Additionally leaking HUMINT will limit our ability to drive an operation based off that intel. So the leaker does not want to see an action based on the intel on the battlefield- they chose to score political points instead. Absolutely reprehensible behavior.

"I'll see you again," @USArmy Green Beret Ben Wise said at the memorial service for his big brother, @USNavy SEAL Jeremy Wise.

2 years later, Jeremy & Ben were reunited. May these brave American brothers, both KIA in Afghanistan, rest in peace.

So Trump was supposed to tell Putin what he knew - burn the intel all so Putin could deny?

If the intel was refined enough then put together a plan to respond.

But instead selfish ppl put politics ahead of country & have the audacity to say they care.

The CHOP was set up in Seattle on June 8. Mayor Jenny Durkan was busy trolling Trump on Twitter and talking about a "summer of love." She only decided to break it up when the mob came to her house four shootings and the death of a 16-year-old later.

We know that Russia and Iran have stepped up lethal aid to the Taliban to "counter ISIS" in Afghanistan.

We also know that the Taliban has used that lethal aid to kill Americans and Afghan security forces.

Let's hold both accountable.

Portland friends,

If you're anything like me, you may be distracted by life - work, kids, global health pandemic, ongoing racial pandemic - and you may not realize what is happening in our city. But for the last 30 days a largely white fringe factor has wreaked havoc.

I always hated the "you'll never rid the ranks of this" mentality.

Yeah, we'll never win the war on drugs, or in Afghanistan or Iraq (without a very loose definition of winning )

But it doesn't mean we shouldn t make every effort to try.

Clarification: they broke multiple doors at Fed Courthouse.

Rioters also started a fire on Main, and one threw an open pocket knife at an officer

The tenor of the group shifted when demonstrators broke in to the north side doors of the Justice Center located on Southwest Main Street. Soon after, the group moved back to Southwest 3rd Avenue and broke glass doors on the Federal Court House building.

Around 11:42 p.m. Federal officers inside the courthouse came outside to protect the integrity of their building. While federal officers were outside, demonstrators began launching projectiles at the officers with sling shots. These projectiles included large rocks, full cans, and bottles. Demonstrators also threw lit striking them. Demonstrators continued to throw large rocks and full cans, as well as shot off commercial grade fireworks towards officers. During this time, several arrests were made. Once demonstrators were at Southwest 6th Avenue and Southwest Main Street officers disengaged the crowd.

Around 12:46 a.m., demonstrators returned to the west side of the federal courthouse. Once again, demonstrators were warned by the sound truck that the riot declaration was still in effect and they needed to leave the area. At this time, demonstrators started launching mortars towards the federal courthouse

These people are garbage.

They don't care about actual human rights struggles.

If a cause doesn't help them gain political power, the "marginalized groups" they claim to care so much about can kick rocks I guess.

Why I came forward to my chain of command about being sexually harassed:
1. I'm a leader...if this is happening to me and making me feel unsafe while I am in a position of power then what is happening to my Soldiers who don't feel like they can come forward.

@oekent16jan19 Jon has a lot of surgery today

Spent the day at Arlington visiting Jon, Shannon, and baby Jonathan It was 101 degrees out, and we left with bad sunburns, but we could have spent the entire day here. We needed this visit more than our hearts knew. 💙❤️

The intel about the bounties was leaked, harming if not killing the intel cycle & limiting our response options.

The leaked intel is now being used to keep us in AFG longer.

The leakers do not care about the troops, they only care about the status quo.

This is why I simply cannot stand the Iraqi diaspora analysts with fresh diplomas from western unis. They've painted Iraq to be a country of cute rainbows over the years when shit like this was happening constantly Theyre all Iranian shills who have obvious faqih inclinations.

Time to cut ties with the GOI. Our finding goes to Kitab Al-Hizballah so they can kill US forces, protesters & now journalists like al-Hashimi.

If the GOI wants to act like Iran, treat them like Iran. Our funding & sanctions relief only funds terror.

But think the biggest problem in occupation was how ttle troops we had Generals were saying we'd probably need 500K troops back in 2000 and we obviously only used 100K in the surge.

Would we have been abie to use regional conscriptee armies as effective auxiliary forces. ie Pakistan and Arab states that Saddam also threatened.

Obviously NATO was borderline useless during the war because they didn t have the same interests as us

Saddam was attacking all his neighbors as well as American planes patrolling the area.

If he didn't invade Kuwait in the 90s Iraq would've had nukes by 2000.

And AFAIK after we removed Saddam Iran actually slowed their nuclear program down considerably.

James Hupp was my team mate on ODA 5414, our sr. 18E. We trained Iraqi troops together and led them on combat operations in N. Iraq. We were the two SF guys on MH-60 chalks, Hupp kicking in doors (literally) that I couldn't. Amazing soldier. Then he killed himself.

Iraq's Iran problem, namely Kataib Hezbollah needs to be the top issue discussed when PM Kadhimi visits the U.S.

KH & Abu Fadak are a U.S. & Iraq problem - if Kadhimi won't take them on, the U.S. must.

If we don't have a partner, we need to end our relationship with Baghdad.

Federal prosecutors said nearly a dozen people have been arrested. They're facing a variety of charges from assault on federal officers to destruction of federal government property and disorderly conduct.

"They're not protesters- they're just lawless actors," said Williams.

Recent cases involved one protester who allegedly attacked a federal agent with a large hammer. Another demonstrator is facing federal charges for allegedly shining a green laser at officers' eyes causing temporary blurred vision.

I think most of the charges that come across the Portland DA's desk will get dropped, at this point there is no real plan to quell this. The USMS helps but they are a small force unfortunately.

In an insurgency it's easy to get fixated on the violence & ignore the factors that enable the violence

The violence on our streets is alarming but the silence & support for that violence from the media & normal citizens can't be ignored it allows the violence to continue.

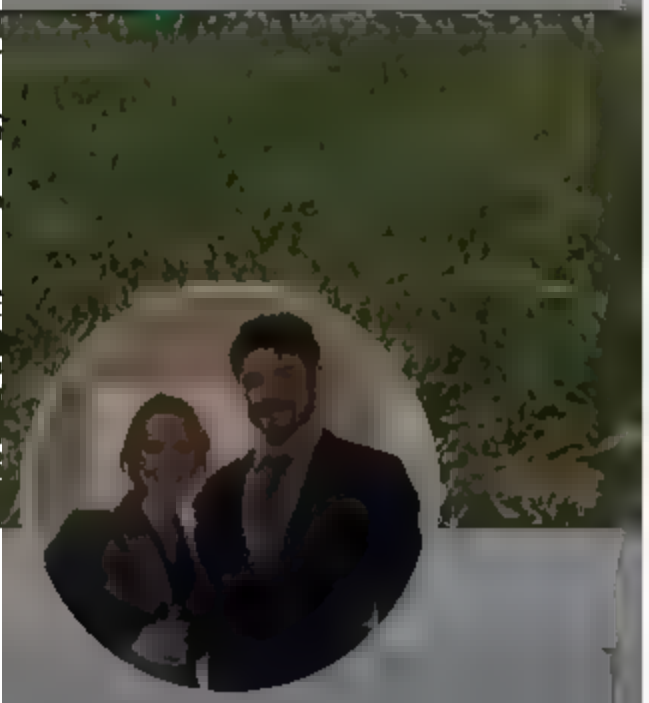
Thank you brother! n this beautiful country, you can come from nowhere and be anything you want!



It only takes hard work, motivat on, and staying focused on your dream/goal.

I know this because I'm living it. God Bless the USA 🇺🇸❤️ 💙

In an insurgency it s easy to get fixated on the violence & ignore the factors that enable the violence

The violence on our streets s alarming but the silence & support for that violence from the media & normal citizens can't be ignored it allows the violence to continue.

I think most of the charges that come across the Portland DA's desk will get dropped, at th s point there s no real plan to quell th s. The USMS helps but they are a smal force unfortunately.

TheGoodGirl @CoC GoodGirl 2h

yeah, the local charges won't stick but the federal charges probably will I saw last night that USMS from other areas were there to help. because the force in Portland is too smal to protect the several federa buildings

#Antifa started a large fire where the Portland elk statue used to be. They burnt a US flag in the flames. Every night they start fires, vandalize everything in the area & leave a mess. The city cleans in the morning & the cycle starts again at night.

DHS/USMS conducting targeted arrests of antifa / BLM insurgents is fighting smart.

Deploying the Mil/NG to quell large scale riots will only radicalize more ppl.

Letting this insurrection go unchecked is not an option.

Give F3EAD a chance.

I don't know that I'm onboard with the approach. This admin hasn't shown any sort of leadership that would imply they have a clear plan here so I'm very skeptical If the protestors commit a crime, document and prosecute Detain to ID, sure.

The "outrage" from media and so many others about ANTIFA, a domestic terrorist group, facing a minor federal law enforcement response is a tell.

ANTIFA is the private army of the left.

They want ANTIFA to murder, loot, and destroy communities.

The media has joined ANTIFA.

There are definitely antifa / BLM leaders at the local level PPD knows who they are they are just left unchecked. The agitators & arsonists are the easiest to ID & arrest on fed charges.

Anyone conducting crimes should be arrested. Not just for belonging to a group. There are members of BLM who are committing violent acts, arrest them based on their crimes not grp affiliation.

Agreed, though it would be interesting to see what these folks are being arrested for. If they are federal felony arrests or state. Interestingly, Oregon grants Fed LE peace officer authority, so I guess technically they could be arresting them on local charges

Many police agencies have SWAT/TAC teams. These teams will be in cammo because sometimes their operations take them places where its needed

CBP often operates in remote or wild terrain. The FBI sends people overseas to hostile environments.

Back off, Coronavirus @silver_shots · 53m

Should they use it while operating in cities like Portland? I think theres a strong case the answer should be "no", but these guys aren't cosplaying the military. A lot of them are veterans, including me. We joined the LE ranks to get out of the military

After federal police responded to and protected the building being attacked by antifa, they were subject to thrown projectiles. They fire off teargas to disperse rioters. This is the context always intentionally left out of viral videos picked up by media.

Psmith @Psmith_Tweets 2h
No one is preventing PPB from making lawful arrests. Perhaps you're thinking of the federal judge's restraining order that prevents them from unnecessarily deploying tear gas or beating journalists

Most people on the right have no problem understanding people on the left because many, if not most, were on the left themselves when they were younger. But many, if not most, people on the left find it inexplicable how any decent and intelligent person could be on the right.

You don t believe the president has to show any respect for law and order by, for example, flagrantly ignoring the Advise and Consent Clause with endless acting secretaries but you ask us to view a few hundred unarmed demonstrators as an existential threat to society? Like, no.

Also, when you use the term "law and order," can you explain to me what is "law and order" about the president pardoning his friends and associates? What is "law and order" about refusing to reveal his tax returns? That s the kind of "law and order" I'm interested in.

It's a lose-lose for LEOs the local PD has been told to stand down so the feds are spread thin, making overreactions happen to defend the fed building The peaceful protesters know what happens each night & most are running cover for the violent protesters No easy answers

I'll only speak for myself, what's happening in Portland mirrors the beginning of an insurgency, one side controlling the narrative & initiative local leaders refusing to police their streets out of fear & sympathy for militants seeking control.

If Portland leaders had their way they'd submit to antifa & BLM's demands.

They care more about appealing to the militant left than protecting their citizens.

If the Feds abandon PDX this only gets worse.

The core idea in the project is that race-based chattel slavery was foundational to the country.

What 1619 did was set forth an earlier anchor point (as opposed to 1776) for American law, politics, and culture

It doesn't change 1783, 1865, or 1964, it adds depth to the arc.

CURRENT COMMUNIST GOALS

1. U.S. acceptance of coexistence as the only alternative to atomic war

2. U.S. willingness to capitulate in preference to engaging in atomic war

3. Develop the illusion that total disarmament by the United States would be a demonstration of moral strength

4. Permit free trade between all nations regardless of Communist affiliation and regardless of whether or not items sold would be used for war

5. Extension of long-term loans to Russia and Soviet satellites

6. Provide American aid to all nations regardless of Communist domination

7. Grant recognition of Red China. Admission of Red China to the U.N.

8. Set up East and West Germany as separate states in spite of Khrushchev's promise in 1955 to settle the German question by free elections under supervision of the U.N.

9. Prolong the conferences to ban atomic tests because the United States has agreed to suspend tests as long as negotiations are in progress

Seattle is quickly moving forward with its plan to "abolish prisons."

I've received a trove of leaked documents from within the King County Executive's Office claiming that the justice system is a "white supremacist institution" that must be dismantled.

It's explosive.

The document begins by claiming that the justice system is built of a foundation of "racism," "white fragility," and "white supremacist culture." They say that whites have a "need to control" and have designed "social conditions" to "oppress People of Color."

The idea that our entire story is about us keeping slaves due to our deep racism just doesn't add up. The brits weren't about to free the slaves. The ideas the founders came up w/ have freed more ppl than any other force in human history. Were some flawed? Of course, we all are.

The city is asking to participate as an "amicus curiae," which essentially means it's an expert adviser that isn't a party in the lawsuit but has an interest in the outcome. The city says its interest is that federal officers are harassing its citizens.

DHS's deployment caused the rioters to concentrate on the federal building in Portland for the past 2 weeks.

That ended last night, as the riots spread to the east side, including residential areas.

DHS taking the brunt allowed PPB to respond to the east side riots.

Anarcho organization. Daniel. Come on, bud. Think that through.

On Fox & Friends, Dan Crenshaw claims that "ANTIFA" has uniforms and "yes they exist; you can call them anarcho-fascist communists, whatever they are. In any case they're basically a domestic terrorist organizations."

Organizations like antifa thrive in chaos that appears to be anarchy, that does not mean they don't exist. Dan's larger point is valid

I've known anarchists, Joe, and I've known fascists. I've known a couple dirty commies, too. I'd be quite intrigued to meet someone who is somehow all three

Come to Portland, the terms are very fluid. Antifa is using anarchy / chaos in a targeted way to push their goal of bringing the system down. To make that appealing they use socialist/commie rhetoric but their goal is fascist style control.

Want to know how activists in places like Portland take over roads, smash windows, light buildings on fire, and still have the press call them non-violent? Well, as it turns out these are well trained activists using intelligent, highly developed tactics.

It's EXACTLY what it sounds like. They put sympathetic people out front to garner sympathy and create the APPEARANCE of underdogs fighting an uphill battle against powerful interests.

I spent the weekend inside the Portland federal courthouse w/ the US Marshals. Mortars were being fired off repeatedly, fireworks & flares shot into the lobby, frozen bottles, concrete, cans & bouncy balls regularly whizzed over the fence at high speeds.

At 11:32 p.m. local time rioters began to drive a car toward the fence protecting the courthouse as large mortar fireworks were fired at the building. In response, federal officers were forced to leave the building in order to repel the rioters. While officers stood at the fence, rioters attempted to set it on fire.

At 11:49 p.m. local time the first Molotov cocktails of the evening were thrown at the courthouse. Minutes later, rioters continued their efforts to saw

At this point, does anybody still believe that this nightly chaos is about 'justice' or police reform? The goals are much bigger – an attack on the entire fabric of our society. Attacking police officers is just the starting point.

So the true failure is on Wheeler, the DA to back the PPB to defend the public

Jeffrey Meiser @jwmeiser · Jul 27

Who ever is setting law enforcement tactics, strategy, and policy is to blame. I am confused about the lines of control in Portland gov. on this point, but it seems the largest share of blame has to fall on Wheeler. (Not necessarily for the reasons you suggest.)

Joe Kent @joekent16jan19 · Jul 27

Wheeler runs the police & city so it falls on him. What do you think are the reasons? I think PDX'ers slide to the absurd left is at the core of it, so we get what we vote for & tolerate

Jeffrey Meiser @jwmeiser · 7h

I don't have evidence of a left shift in PDX politics or of a decline in quality of life, but I've only been here 6 years, so I'd have to do some research on all these issues before I could give an intelligent analysis

PDX has been Dem as far as I can remember, but took a shift left just ahead of the progressive push in the DNC in the Obama era. The proof is in ppl's support for the current lawlessness, our out of control homeless expansion & the lack of tolerance for political diversity.

Riots have made something clear: marked vehicles are prime targets for destruction.

So, some agencies are clearly using unmarked cars to avoid their vehicles being damaged/burned.

These are clearly identifiable local officers making an arrest. Miss me with that "gestapo" BS.

The Monday morning QBing is astounding and completely ignores the advice by the experts as late as mid March as well as the Democrat leadership to include Biden calling travel bans xenophobic and telling us to go out to restaurants, specifically in China town by Nancy and AOC

It's a constant back and forth between the rioters and federal officers. Officers go back into the courthouse to then come out another exit. I've counted three people taken into custody so far.

I read "The Looming Tower" in 2007 between my two deployments and it still sticks with me today. What a great book. I have not watched and likely will not watch the series based off of it.

The goal of defunding the police was a whacky idea that started in liberal cities & is now gaining lots of traction in the DNC, so the idea that these concepts are just a flair up is wishful thinking.

BREAKING: Seattle City Council moves to abolish the entire Seattle Police Department and replace it with a "civilian led Department of Community Safety & Violence Prevention."

They want to replace the police force with nonprofit programs and "community-led activities."

CITY OF SEATTLE

RESOLUTION

RESOLUTION related to policing and public safety establishing the Council's intent to cr[illegible] a civilian led department of community safety & violence prevention, identifying acti[illegible] in 2020 to remove certain functions from the Seattle Police Department and provide funding for a community led process to inform the structure and function of a new department of community safety & violence prevention, requesting modifications to policing practices, requesting reporting to the Council; providing guidance on lay-off decisions; and establishing a work program and timeline for creating a new departmen[illegible]

WHEREAS, the Council recognizes that the racism in and Seattle's history of racism and its current impact of institutional racism and structural racism cause over-policing and underinvestment in communities of color and especially in Black communities; and

WHEREAS the Council is committed to confronting structural and institutional racism as a fundamental step towards addressing the racist institution of policing, and

WHEREAS, in May 2020, Minneapolis police officers murdered George Floyd, setting off nationwide protests against police brutality and for justice for Black victims of police violence; and

In the early weeks of the riots, a pig was found abandoned near downtown Portland in the middle of the night. Police rescued the animal. It is believed a protester was going to kill the pig as an act of anti-police protest but abandoned it last minute. oregonlive.com/news/2020/06/h

Trump has purged the GOP from the failed foreign policies that got us into our endless wars.

The DNC can only offer Biden the Iraq war & Iran deal supporter, who failed to extract us from Afghanistan & allowed ISIS to expand.

Joe Kent @joekent16jan19 · 28

The Russia trope is ridiculous. Russia attacked Ukraine under Obama/Biden, their solution was hooking up Biden's son w/ bags of cash. Under Trump Ukraine received lethal aid

Joe Kent @joekent16jan19 · 28

What the military & our nation need from a POTUS is decisive leadership that avoids conflict but is not afraid to use force. Biden / Obama failed to act against our foes as they killed us & failed to extract us from the wars they were happy to criticize

Joe Kent @joekent16jan19 · 28

Trump's ability to use force when needed while avoiding new conflicts & ending our current wars is why he has this Gold Star family's vote this fall

I love recommending books that should and need to be read. Like Thad Forester's book about his brother Mark Forester. My brother and Mark were both JTAC, both were killed in action. So, it was an incredible coincidence when I was interviewed by Thad on his podcast.

My take on Portland:

Antifa & associated groups helped fabricate a narrative that Trump is the authoritarian dictator of a fascist regime. Framing federal agencies as an occupying violent oppressive force. Originally, called upon by @tedwheeler to restore law & order.

Once "Feds" arrived in Portland, Antifa, BLM & associated groups organized, publicly, privately & through encrypted channels, large scale events w/ thousands of people to mask their strategic incitement & action of extreme violence against federal property and agents

Kalen From Scriberr @FromKalen · 30s

Their meticulous premeditated acts of crime & violence include: vandalism, destruction of federal, public & private property, assault w/ explosive projectiles, thrown objects, intent to harm w/ high-wattage hand held lasers, arson, and much more

Antifa & Assoc. immediately implemented a new strategy to reinforce their fabricated narrative as soon as Oregon officials and US federal agencies came to an agreement to quell 60+ day extreme violence in portland

Truth. They're weak and unwilling to do what's necessary to keep people safe and society running. Any criticism whatsoever that pulls on heartstrings makes them bend over backwards to change their mind. It's pathetic. If the police can't do their jobs, give people the guns.

Sen. @TedCruz is today chairing a Senate hearing to highlight the role Antifa and others are playing in recent riots across the country -- warning that radical groups are engaging in "organized terror attacks" against government institutions.

I don't disagree. I just think the ideological lens through which we see it dictates if that's good or bad ya know?

If you like him it is: he will surround themselves with the best people. They hire well!

If you don't like him: they won't even be in charge. They are puppets.

wut @wutnow_wut · 8m

Absolutely true. I just wish more people were looking past Biden to see who he's surrounding himself with, just as I would any candidate. For me Biden feels like a bait and switch but that's probably always true to some degree.

London @_londonyuki · 3m

Agreed 100%. We (as a country) just need to get comfortable understanding that politicians or voters picking someone we don't like isn't always nefarious or suspect. It's just they want something different. Then we can debate issues not the politics (hopefully)

Just my two cents: seems it's pandering when it's the other side but when it's your side it's called listening to the voters. It's just hard to follow the narrative of Biden being a leftist with an agenda but also that he has dementia. That he is establishment but also radical etc

Ryan @RyanECJ · 2h

They're desperate to paint him that he's a Bernie Sanders liberal. We all know that ain't true. As a republican I can wait to vote for joe and get trump out

wut @wutnow_wut · 2h

Does anyone think Biden is calling the shots? I don't think it really matters what he stands for, he's the Dem choice because he's seen as moderate and they think he's their best chance at winning the election. He's not going to set the agenda.

week, and perhaps for a while longer. Some scumbag attacked him on the train last night at the Bedford stop in Brooklyn. He came up on Dave as he was reading and smashed him in the head with rock.

Jack Murphy @JackMurphyRGR 2h

Dave was knocked out for a second or two as this guy continued hitting him in the head with a softball sized rock, trying to murder him rather than mug him. Somehow Dave fought back, tackled the guy to the floor of the subway, then he ran off at the next stop

1 1 31

Jack Murphy @JackMurphyRGR 2h

Dave was pretty out of it but somehow made it to the police station. He's in the hospital now with TBI, a fractured skull, busted orbital, and deaf in one ear. NYPD is all over this and has seen him three times. They want to catch this dirtbag.

1 1 33

Jack Murphy @JackMurphyRGR 2h

I just talked to him on the phone and the good news is that he sounds like the same old Dave as ever so I think he's going to be okay. He may need some surgeries to recover though, they are working to figure that out. He wanted me to tell all of you that it happened.

This call for direct action for “round 2” in East Precinct will not go unanswered. This announcement means there is intent to engage in violent acts like we saw last night where attempts were made to burn an occupied building and people in vehicles tried to run over officers.

Sadly, we have learned that BG (R) Frank Toney, the first Commander of 1st Batallion, 3rd SFG (A) after our re-activation in 1990, passed away today at the age of 70. Toney led 1/3 during Operation Desert Storm.

Our condolences go out to his family.

Reality Check: It's been 10 days since the agreement between DHS and Oregon. During that time, @PortlandPolice has declared riots or unlawful assemblies 12 times.

Rioting and arson are not actions of peaceful protesting.

Say his name. 5 year old Cannon Hinnant was executed in cold blood while riding his bike. The accused killer is Darius Sessoms. He allegedly walked up to the boy and shot him dead in front of his sisters. Reverse the races and this is the only thing anyone talks about for a month

Since the revolving door that is the DAs office is in part fueled by the donations celebrities have made to bail funds, shouldn't there be a national campaign to shame them for their contribution to the destruction and violence?

Success for Baghdad and success for Iraq are two very different things.

Iraqis want the U.S. to use economic and military tools to deal with Iran's hold over Baghdad.

In order to save Iraq, the U.S. must be willing to disfavor Baghdad.

5-yr-old Cannon Hinnant was executed point blank in front of his 2 sisters in broad daylight while they were riding bikes. Because a violent criminal felt like shooting a boy in the head.

National media remains SILENT on this heinous murder.

It doesn't fit their narrative.

Ok maybe I've been following paranoid people on twitter too long, but doesn't the governor have to approve this and couldn't be that Kate Brown wants the feds to have to deal with things? Also the noters are planning to start a 2 month occupation in the parks there tonight.

I think you might be right, considering how the riots spread back into East Portland after the fed surge left, better to have riots in one place. Or the OSP is making Brown order them back. It will be interesting to see how it plays out.

Printing fake ballots, not delivering ballots from certain areas, receiving ballots at several locations due to address changes and a lack of verification. In person voting has its issues too, voter ID would fix many of them but that is a different issue.

We find excuses for anything when it fits ones agenda. Mail voting goes back to the civil war and is effective. We should all be striving for fairness and weeding out the corruption and criminals on either side

I don't recall discussions of going back to Civil war era mail in voting in any other election year a few months away from election day. If its a better system then lets pass legislation making it a law.

Hearing PM Kadhimi ordered MOD to cancel 3 Director Generals positions going to Badr Officers for Budgets, Contracts, & Armaments & Supplies.

MOD said "NO!"

This is Badr taking over key positions in MOD, adding to their takeover of MOI, & control of NSC.

A PM without power.

The states who have mail in voting in place have the infrastructure & systems in place, turning the rest of the country on a dime is a recipe for a disputed election.

You can't have mass mail in voting when the union for postal workers endorsed Joe Biden. You expect us to trust people who endorsed Biden to deliver the votes of people with Trump signs in their yard? That's crazy! Votes would be stolen.

Vote in person!

Found out from my doorman yesterday that a couple of transients broke into my apartment building this week, held a maintenance guy at knifepoint & trashed the breakroom — including leaving used tampons on the floor — & that people have been getting mugged out front.

These are clearly important areas for study, but if we're teaching contemporary leaders about UW it is very hard to rise above our own baggage tied to Iraq, '03-20

It is natural, rightly or wrongly, to reject alternate perspectives of events with which we have direct experience

It's adorable that the media in Portland describes 80 nights of attacks on the community "protests against police brutality & racial injustice."

They haven't learned that appeasement won't spare them from the mob.

The riots have already conditioned many on the left to condone violence against the police / fed gov, a Trump win would further the radicalization of the left, next logical step is justification of a Podesta type plan / insurrection.

If Biden wins the right will just complain.

Major problems are coming to our urban centers, the left has allowed violence & lawlessness to spread, forcing those with means out of the cities, leaving an empty economy, large numbers of vagrants, underfunded or defunded police. The urban / rural divide is a huge faultline.

Any person, for any reason, who seeks to exploit the current partisan tension in a manner that promotes civil conflict should be considered treasonous and subjected to summary capital punishment. Period. Stop this foolish and dangerous speculation.

Put more votes in the ballot boxes. It's that simple. Any effort to use violence or the threat of the same to either seize power or retain it should be automatically disqualifying. The US is about peaceful transitions. That is the only acceptable outcome.

I agree with that. There is one side tolerating violence. I'm on the right & pro Trump, if he loses I plan on going on with my life. The DNC is not playing by those rules, they can't coalesce behind a candidate or common values & are willing to burn our system in rage.

I hope so, in some cities certainly. In the PNW there is too much support for the riots/ insurrection for traditional law & order mechanisms to put this back in the box, the radicalized middle has to feel the un checked violence they have cheered on to return things to normal.

We need to hope two things:

1) That line is crossed soon and by relatively minor further incident (no, it hasn't been crossed yet, obviously, unless in the last few days)

2) The answer comes from police and federal authorities, not self-appointed gangs.

The best the feds can do is target the leaders / agitators with fed terror & Rico like conspiracy charges.

An aggressive campaign of arresting the ldrs during the day would disrupt nightly riots. Getting fed terror charges to stick will act as deterrence for some rioters.

Here's a thought for you: Jill Biden is the reincarnation of Edith Wilson, who effectively acted during Woodrow's illness his last 2 years in office! Now just imagine the cat fight in the Oval Office when Kamala tries to implement the 25th Amendment and Jill objects!

I think Jill is a key player in concealing Joe's obvious cognitive decline, and I absolutely think there will be tension between her and Kamala if Joe manages to get elected Biggest issue I see with the news from the PM's visit is that we plan on staying in Iraq while tightening sanctions on Iran, giving Iraq easy access to US targets. We also gave them far too much aid & allowed Iran to retain their grip on the GOI/ISF.

This email was sent to city employees today in Portland. The federal courthouses were shut down because of a threat that a car with explosives was going to ram it.

With police in retreat and violent extremists empowered, parts of downtown are becoming formally “no-go” areas.

Downtown Security Advisory

Dear City Employees,

Out of an abundance of caution, we are asking that employees leave the downtown area by noon today and avoid the area through the remainder of the weekend.

As you may know, there are scheduled demonstrations for the downtown corridor this afternoon and this weekend, as well as the potential for increases in dangerous or violent activity.

If you have questions about your specific work situation, please check in with your supervisor.

Best Regards,

It has everything to do with the erosion of law & order. This will keep happening if local leaders refuse to enforce the law & use unrest as a political gamble.

1) "law and order" is a dog whistle, and has been for decades

The same could be said for "dog whistle". I'll clarify. If local leaders take the easy route of letting their cities burn as opposed to stopping rioting, its hard to take them serious when they claim they support justice. Justice is enforcing our laws & keeping the peace for all.

We can probably go for a while on this. My point was that framing the USG decision to strike Soleimani as "as soon as Trump heard about this" is hyperbolic, and makes IC/USG operations sound like they are executed on a whim. Paints a false picture and misleads the uninitiated

Office of Mayor Ted Wheeler
City of Portland

August [illegible]

Dear President Trump

Yet again you [illegible] Portland, by sending in federal law enforcement [illegible]

On behalf of the City of Portland, No thanks.

We don't need your military [illegible] and disrespect. Portlanders are [illegible]. We've already seen your reckless disregard for humanity in your bumbling response to the [illegible] pandemic. And we know you're counting on exploiting [illegible] violence [illegible] to reelection.

There is no place [illegible] in our city. There is no room here [illegible] those who would bring their ideology of hate into our communities. Those who commit criminal acts will be [illegible] and prosecuted under [illegible].

Tens of thousands of Portlanders have peacefully protested and marched for the noble cause of fixing our broken criminal justice system. They are part of the proud progressive tradition of Portlanders fighting for justice – racial justice – so we can realize justice for all [illegible].

[illegible] you should be aware of [illegible]. As Mark the [illegible] of States, I will direct [illegible] to expel [illegible] disguises as a means to instigate fear and mistrust as [illegible] the real work of our city.

In Portland, we are focused on [illegible] policies as a community to solve the serious challenges we face due to systemic racism, a global pandemic and an economic recession.

Make us proud.

Sincerely,

Ted Wheeler
Mayor of Portland

I got into a lengthy and wide ranging argument w/ a former teammate on FB last night. I'm not sure why it took some of the wild turns it took, but I was shocked by the claim that a (then) SFC being punished for 2 DUIs in a week was "politically correct officers screwing the guys"

I think a ton of the DUI drama stemmed from how many old school SF senior ldrs had DUIs & other booze issues then flipped the switch & started cracking down on guys. There was lots of hypocrisy but it's still on the individuals. And for god sake uber or walk home.

Regardless of your political views - one thing is clear, the lack of condemnation and handling of the riots is a significant problem.

Excerpt of Remarks as Prepared for Delivery by Vice President Joe Biden in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

This president long ago forfeited any moral leadership in this country. He can't stop the violence because for years he has fomented it.

He may believe mouthing the words law and order makes him strong, but his failure to call on his own supporters to stop acting as an armed militia in this country shows you how weak he is.

Does anyone believe there will be less violence in America if Donald Trump is reelected?

We need justice in America. And we need safety in America.

We are facing multiple crises. Crises that, under Donald Trump, keep multiplying.

COVID.

Economic devastation.

Unwarranted police violence.

Emboldened white nationalists.

A reckoning on race.

Declining faith in a bright American future.

The common thread?

An incumbent president who makes things worse, not better.

Some in the crowd broke windows and someone appears to have lit off a firework in the building. Some protesters are upset about this, saying it endangers the people in the building and minority-owned businesses in the complex. Police are now coming

Agree to a certain extent, Biden & many Dems think they can control the violence they have co-opted. They can't.

The violent, radical left wants total control, if Biden doesn't give it they will continue this violent escalation.

Either way- this won't end in November.

So a white guy shoots and kills a black cop - father of three - and there isn't a word from #BlackLivesMatter, the @NBA, @NFL, @NHL, and @MLB. But if a cop kills a black career criminal or sex offender, they want to burn the city down. Think about that for a minute!

Pelosi can t just unilatera ly invoke the 25th Amendment

Section 1 In case of the removal of the President from office or of his death or resignation, the Vice President shall become President.

Section 2. Whenever there is a vacancy in the office of the Vice President, the President shall nominate a Vice President who shall take office upon confirmation by a majority vote of both Houses of Congress.

Section 3. Whenever the President transmits to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives his written declaration that he is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office, and until he transmits to them a written declaration to the contrary, such powers and duties shall be discharged by the Vice President as Acting President.

The Twenty-fifth Amendment in the National Archives

Section 4. Whenever the Vice President and a majority of either the principal officers of the executive departments or of such other body as Congress may by law provide, transmit to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives their written declaration that the President is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office, the Vice President shall immediately assume the powers and duties of the office as Acting President.

Thereafter, when the President transmits to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives his written declaration that no inability exists, he shall resume the powers and duties of his office unless the Vice President and a majority of either the principal officers of the executive department or of such other body as Congress may by law provide, transmit within four days to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives their written declaration that the President is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office. Thereupon Congress shall decide the issue, assembling within forty-eight hours for that purpose if not in session. If the Congress, within twenty-one days after receipt of the latter written declaration, or, if Congress is not in session, within twenty-one days after Congress is required to assemble, determines by two-thirds vote of both Houses that the President is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office, the Vice President shall continue to discharge the same as Acting President; otherwise, the President shall resume the powers and duties of his office. Good.

If Portland leaders can't provide basic safety for their people they can't be trusted with federal funding.

You can't expect federal funding while blaming all your self inflicted problems on the federal government.

The thing about Antifa is that it's not the organized bogeyman many on the right think it is.

But its also not the existential, existing-but-not-existing idea that many on the left portray it as.

Locally organized Antifa are responsible for huge amounts of violence and arson.

Antifa may not have a formal leadership structure with dedicated logistics and a chain of command

But it does have lots of loosely organized, local cells that have proven adept at mobilizing people for violece and destruction. Antifa was at the CHAZ. Its in Portland

Back off, Coronavirus @silver_shots · 8m

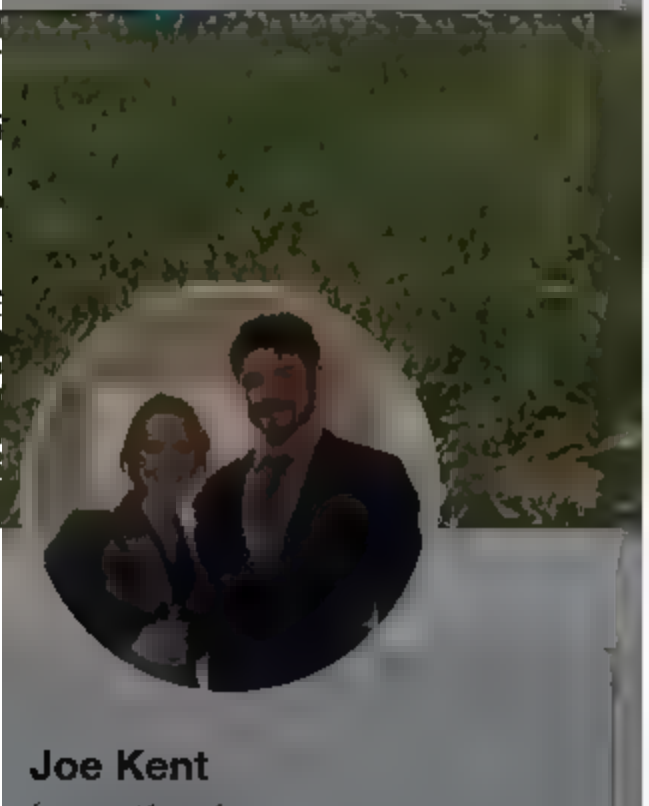
"Antifa" isn t so much a group these days as it is an idea people can identify themselves with.



But its not just about being "anti fascist" Most people already are Calling yourself "Antifa" means your signing on for violence.

The new Atlantic piece on Trump is so damning that all of the statements attributed to Trump are from anonymous sources.

Trying to paint Trump as coward is just silly, we have not had a vet POTUS since HW Bush. All of the POTUSs who were old enough for Nam all got out of it.

Actions matter, not platitudes. Save the "Thank you"s & wreaths & make our sacrifices count.

On a personal note, I have had several interactions with POTUS since my wife was killed & have only seen a leader who cares deeply about Americans dying on his watch.

It was their cash and it delayed their nuclear program and was effective. ISIS expanded due to Iraqis. we are in 16th year of that war. do you really think Trump is a good President and we are stronger and better than 4 years ago? Seriously?

The cash led to the Iranian regional expansion, ISIS went mostly unchecked under Obama, we deployed but lacked the will win, Trump fixed both. I think we are much better off w/foreign policy & many issues. The unrest is exposing the true intentions of the far left.

The task force was attempting to arrest Michael Forest Reinoehl, wanted by Multnomah County Circuit Court (Oregon) on a charge of murder. Reinoehl was allegedly involved in an August 29 shooting incident in Portland, Oregon, that resulted in a death.

2 5 15

U.S. Marshals @USMarshalsHQ · 2m

The Portland Police Bureau had issued a warrant for his arrest earlier in the day and asked the US Marshals to locate and apprehend the suspect. The fugitive task force located Reinoehl in Olympia and attempted to peacefully arrest him.

In this photo, you can see Ladder 118 crossing over the Brooklyn Bridge on their way to the World Trade Center. This is their last known photo. Every single firefighter on that truck perished just a few minutes later. We vowed to never forget. Unfortunately, so many have.

Lafayette Lee @OrangePartisan 8h

We have millions of young men today that are withering away from neglect. They are wast ng their prec ous youth on porn drugs, fast food, and video games. By the time they rea ze how indolent they've been, they've already passed up important milestones.

I don't th nk the answer to th s comes from some gimmicky technology, state ntervention, or p.ty party campaign these young men need fathers. And if that sn't possible, then they need mentors. I think a lot of us could do more to fill this void for those ost souls out there Mentoring & being given a sense of purpose could go along way. Our society has tragically stripped a sense of duty & a challenge to conquer away from men, but the desire remains & seems to manifests in destruction.

Only caveat would put is many on the left were blanketed as unpatriotic for not supporting the war initially. Definitely a bunch of apathy cloaked in "support the troops" as of late, but opposing war/conflict was definitely seen an anti American by many

I think Obama's ideological preference was to get us out of the wars, but he did not want to look weak so he embraced the "good war" vs. "dumb war" narrative, both proved to be sticky for him & he gambled that Iraq (w/SY & ISIS) would never be "on him" b/c he didn't vote for OIF.

Another from our friend Joe. Fantastic piece

The rank and file within the military are very pro-Trump. The MI and officer class are not. Why?

An answer could be that those two groups never bear the brunt of war, whereas the first does.

For an E3-6 war is deeply personal.

Women have been in combat going back to our revolution. In the GWOT they fought & died on battlefield w/ men.

If women are good enough to go fight & sacrfice then it's only right that they are allowed to compete for the same jobs as men.

Crazy to me that there are innocent people who have already lost or could possibly lose much of their material things in these fires which no one is directly at fault for and meanwhile there are rioters choosing—CHOOSING—to inflict this fate upon innocent people. It's abhorrent.

I'm seeing lots of commentary on the state of ..., 19yrs after 9/11 -- my take:

- Everything has changed since 2001; we can't judge AQ in 2020 by 2001 or even 2010 metrics.

AQ used to be a rigid organization -- it's now a widely dispersed & deeply decentralized movement

For many of us, the tragedy of 9/11 marked the beginning of our professional lives, with some finding their first workplaces in the mountains of Afghanistan or the streets of Baghdad.

I'm tremendously proud of my generation for answering their nation's call.

United Flight 93 will always be the 9/11 story that hits me the hardest.

The passengers knew they were dead, and had a choice to make. They could let the terrorist kill more innocent people, or they could fight back.

They chose to fight back and retake the plane . #Heroes

Todd Beamer 9/11 Hero

Deliberated with other Flight 93 passengers and decided to take on the terrorist.

His last words heard on the phone were, "Let's Roll".

Worth a read. I agree that many on the left won't be able to handle a Trump win, the radical left will exploit this to gain popular support for increased violence against our system.

The article points out left's inability to cope w/ 2016 that launched the 3 year impeachment saga that made the dems feel better but ultimately came up short & distracted from preparing a coherent argument for 2020.

joe, if anyone would know it's you. If the left accelerates violence outside major urban centers, will vets step up to help lead efforts to defend ordinary citizens or will they have to sit on sidelines because of DOD regs and pensions ?

I don't think it will happen all at once in a dramatic large scale war. I think our cities will have continued political violence until all who can afford to leave get out, then our cities will be cash strapped & crime ridden. Some will quickly correct others will go to hell
